

“Does Anyone Care?”

Acts 2:42-47

September 29, 2019

“They devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.” – Acts 2:42

- Our culture is asking the question, “Does anyone care? Does anyone want to know what’s really going on in my relationships with those I love and care for, in my thought life and in my heart?”
  - They’re asking us, and the answer is found here, in the commitment not only to the truths of scripture, but in our commitment to each other, in the holy bond of friendship and shared trust that can flourish in a small group setting.

Challenge

Were we made to live in the isolation that has become the norm in our society? How arrogant is it for us to buy into the myth of “lone ranger Christianity”, the lie that “me and Jesus” is all it takes for us to live a fruitful and effective life for Christ? How can we possibly expect to do life—let alone life in Christ—and to do it well, without the help and care of others?

Look for someone to care for today; join a LIFE group—care for others and allow them to care for you. I get that it’s risky and even a little scary, but it’s well worth it!
