"Why, O Lord..."

Habakkuk 1:1-13

November 10, 2019

"... O LORD, you have appointed them [the Babylonians] to execute judgement? O Rock, you have ordained them to punish?" – Habakkuk 1:12

The prophet's cry represents our _	for answers and the answer is In other words, if all	else is taken away, if everything falls apart,
He must still be	_ .

Some challenging questions

How do we tend to make our faith dependent on the circumstances in which we find ourselves? What if, what if... we were willing to free fall into the arms of God's grace, and especially of His wisdom, when life breaks or falls apart, and we cannot make sense of what is happening to us? How would that change our prayers? Our outlook? Our stress levels?
