"Though It Linger…"

Habakkuk 1:12-2:4

November 17, 2019

"… Though it [the revelation] linger, wait for it; it will certainly come and will not delay." – Habakkuk 2:3

- We must learn to _____ on God in the hard times, knowing that His salvation—the _____ of His righteousness and justice—will one day come.

Some challenging questions

Why is waiting so hard for us to do? What do we tend to do if the waiting lasts longer than we expected? How often do we tend to rely on ourselves rather than wait for and rely on God? Are we just saying that His salvation will one day come, rather than actually relying on His promise?

Think of a tough situation you are facing: have you turned it over to God in prayer? In the study of His Word and the seeking out of godly counsel? Have you turned it over only to take it back?
