

“I Believe...”

1 Corinthians 11:17-34

January 5, 2020

“What you must solemnly realize is that every time you eat this bread and every time you drink this cup, you reenact in your words and actions the death of the Master... You must never let familiarity breed contempt.” – 1 Corinthians 11:26, The Message, a paraphrase

- Taking the Lord’s Supper just to _____ we took it means _____ to the Lord.
 - In fact, it is deeply _____ to him, if it is not backed by a clear conscience, and by _____ of compassion and kindness toward those who are hurting.

Some challenging questions

Do you consistently prepare for communion by examining yourselves according to the light of God’s Word and the witness of Christ’s life, death and resurrection? Are you in right relationship with your fellow believers and with God as you approach the table? If not, then the sacrament of communion is meaningless to us and offensive to God.
